

Ben Moor and Kerry Brewer

20th September.

8 - 10pm

The brilliant Ben Moor has just returned from the Edinburgh Fringe performing his solo play EACH OF US, where a backdrop of Kerry Brewer's 'Beehive' accompanied him.

We are delighted to bring the two shows together and he will perform a special version of his piece for just one night. Roaming the space, Ben will weave his fictions and facts, through and around the canvases.

Funny and romantic, cryptic and surreal, poetic and uplifting. In a mixed-up world, populated by self-conscious bees, time-travelling ghosts and corporate thwarters, how can you stop yourself creating a social catastrophe of your own life?

Ingenious... A moving satire on the arbitrariness of the everyday, rivaling the best of Douglas Adams. THE GUARDIAN
